Dear Members

Bold and pragmatic responses are needed to surmount unprecedented challenges. Since the beginning of the Pandemic MAUK through its 'Hope is Stronger than Fear' campaign, has been adapting and delivering vital services for the local community and the wider Malayalee community throughout the UK. As a reputable, service -orientated organisation, MAUK led from the front during this time of crisis, bringing together like-minded organisations, finding innovative ways in delivering its services and setting standards. Finally, I take this opportunity to sincerely thank all our members for allowing me to serve both the UK Malayalee Community and the Communities of East London through MAUK. It was an honour and privilege to have been able to guide a superb team and take MAUK to new heights. I have endeavoured my best to fulfil my duties and responsibilities in a fair, consistent and dignified manner.

Yours Sincerely,

Sreejith Sreedharan
Chairperson
